Measurements:

- Early Espresso 4 1/4" X 11" scored at 5 1/2"
- White - embossed layer 3 3/4" X 5", 4" X 5 1/4", inside 3 1/2" X 4 3/4", strip 3 1/2" long X 1"

Directions:

1. Texture the 3 3/4" X 5" White layer with the embossing folder. Use a sponge dauber and Coastal Cabana ink to add ink to the recessed sunflower and leaf areas. Don't fill them in fully.
2. Use a Pecan Pie ink pad to brush across the raised surface of the textured layer. Do not press hard.
3. Now use an Early Espresso ink pad to lightly brush across the textured layer. Do not cover over all of the Pecan Pie areas. Mostly I wanted to mostly hit the veins in the leaves and the centers of the sunflowers.
4. You can add more Pecan Pie ink to the sunflower centers with a sponge dauber. Let sit to dry or heat set.
5. Adhere to the larger White layer and add to the card base.
6. Stamp the greeting with Early Espresso ink. Trim the ends in a banner shape. Add to the card with Stampin' Dimensionals. Add a few gems to the right end.
7. Stamp the leaves and flowers on the inside White. You can add Espresso ink to the flower with a sponge dauber before stamping.
