Measurements:

- Peaceful Pine card base 8 1/2" X 5 1/2" scored at 4 1/4"
- White - embossed layer 3 1/4" X 4 1/2", large layer is 3 5/8" X 4 7/8", scrap for greeting die-cut
- Golden Glow 3 1/2" X 4 3/4"

Directions:

1. Sponge multiple colors of water-based ink onto the smallest White layer. I used Peaceful Pine, Old Olive and Golden Glow. Swipe the embossing buddy over this. Stamp the fern and butterfly images with Versamark ink repeatedly over the colorful layer. Immediately heat emboss with clear embossing powder. Let dry a few minutes.
2. Tap or rub a dark colored water-based ink over the embossed layer (I used Secret Sea). *do not use permanent ink! Use a tissue or paper towel to rub off excess black ink. This reveals the pretty colored ferns.
3. Adhere to the Golden Glow layer. Wrap ribbon around the lower half and tie a knot of ribbon to the front. Adhere to the White card and then adhere it all to the card base.
4. Stamp the greeting on the White die-cut. Sponge the edge with Golden Glow ink. Adhere with Stampin' Dimensionals.
5. Finish with butterfly or other gems.
6. Stamp the inside as desired.
